

MICK COLLISS

Gifted Story Teller

Mick Colliss is a gifted story teller with a very funny story to tell. As a young kid growing up, his dream was to play for Australia. But he quickly discovered desire is no substitute for ability. Then finally, at the age of 42, after successive failures at cricket, rugby league, rugby union, surf lifesaving and lawn bowls, he discovers the game of Sudoku, which he can't play that either!

But it doesn't stop him picking himself and three mates from rugby in the first ever Australian Sudoku team and traveling to India to compete for his country at the World Sudoku Championships. Mick's is a laugh out loud true story about mateship, having a go and never giving up, no matter what the odds. It's ideal for corporate, sports and school functions.

"Carson is the ultimate professional consultant in his industry. He invests in understanding his clients, knowing their challenges and offering the best possible suggestions and advice on all occasions. I've enjoyed a 10+ year relationship working with Carson across numerous events and I look forward to our relationship continuing for another 10+ years."

Kathryn Lee, Lumino Events

"The tension of the unknown guest speaker was broken brilliantly by Mick with a well delivered story that captivated the audience and had them in stitches. The feedback has been overwhelmingly positive from all that attended. His presentation set the atmosphere of evening up to be a thoroughly enjoyable night"

Andrew Kavanagh, Opteon Property Group

"Mick certainly met our expectations. He was very well received by our audience, I don't think there was a single person in the room that didn't have a smile from ear to ear and sore cheeks from the continuous laughter that he provided on the night! A fantastic laugh out loud story, and an all round brilliant entertainer!"
